What is grassroots Player Development training?

Ipswich Town Community Trust are passionate about ensuring every child that they work with has the opportunity to develop and progress at a speed which suits their individual skills and abilities.

THE FACTS

ITFC offers sessions for girls and boys, for absolute beginners, those who are more advanced as well as youngsters with special needs.

ITFC provides all players with the opportunity to develop their football skills within a safe and fun learning environment.

ITFC works to offer player development in all aspects of each individuals game through small sided training as well as skills training.

A season of training runs over 30 weeks, split into three terms of 10 weeks of training. Each session lasts one hour, youngsters will be split into age appropriate groups.

All bookings are first come first served, there will not be a priority booking system throughout the season.

ITFC offer opportunities for advanced players to progress into the Player Development Centres with potential to move into the academy.
